BANKER CHARGED

to Hoboken in custody of an inspector to be arraigned before United States Commissioner Russ. Lyon offered to pay any amount of duties or damages the surveyor might demand, but was referred to the United States district attorney for prosecution.

the Hamburg-American Line. At that time the banker's buggage was held and he was allowed to go until today, when he answered the summons to the customs house.

Lyon's baggage had been examined, passed and permission given for him to remove it, and he was in the act of leaving the Hoboken dock when he was bumped into by a man who ambled around like a gawky countryman. The manner of the stranger, who was Inspector Donahue, quickly changed, and he asked of Lyon: "hat have you get in your hip pocket?"

"Which pocket?"

"The one with the lump."

"My pockethook," replied the banker. Finally the banker admitted that he had two peart necklaces in his pocket.

Mr. Lyon said he had purchased them in Europe for $3,800, a gift for his wife.

The banker then said his wife had a discount have becaute the said a discount here.

AMUSEMENTS.

Academy-Matince and night, "Audrey." Bijon—Vaudeville. Audrey" a Big Hit.

"Audrey" a Big Hit.

The Benjamin Players, who had to surrender the Academy last night to the Woman's College for its commencement exercises, will give two performances to-day, Miss Mary Johnston's "Audrey" being the attraction. The audience Monday night was charmed with the production, this being the biggest thing the stock company has attempted this season. Because of its local interest, "Audrey" will probably be seen throughout the week by capacity houses.

THE RAILROAD CONTRACTING FIRM of Langhorne & Langhorne has this day by mutual consent dissolved. Mr. D. A. Langhorne will collect all amounts due the firm All parties having claims against said firm will please present them to D. A. Langhorne.

Marjoric Davis is now doing her Mendelssohn Glide.

There seemed to be a continuous line in front of the Bijou almost from the time the first show started until the last show was well under way and the late arrivals were in time only to see the last two acts on the bill.

Marjoric Davis is now doing her Mendelssohn Glide.

Mendelssohn Glide in a full stage setting, with splendid storm effects, and the dance, so different from the usual run of soubrette stuff so often introduced, appears to capital advantage.

The Pirris, in their feats of marvelous strength, and Miss Houston and Mr. Olmsted, in "A Cousin of Mine." continue to store. To-day will offer the last opportunity to see the new picture. "Roosevelt in Cairo." At every performance so far the appearance of the ex-President in the picture has been greeted by a storm of applause.

The banker then said his wife had a didmond brooch worth $350. A gold watch also purchased abroad for $100, was found in one of the trunks, and it had been overlooked in the first search. All of the jewerry was valued at $4,500.

Inspector Callaghan, Acting Deputy Surveyor Raczkiewicz told Surveyor Smyth that they had several times asked Mr. Lyon to declare all dutlable merchandise, but he had declared only $504 worth of goods, and at their request had added $45 for two dress-sult cases. Lyon is said to be a millionaire.

Lyon furnished cash ball of $2,500 before Commissioner Russ. He will be examined on June $8.
